Louisville, June 14.—The fifteenth annual convention of the United Confederate Veterans assembled here at noon today. The crowd exceeds expectations and the assurance of glorious weather promises a more than usually successful re-union. Preparations for accommodating the visitors have been made on a lavish scale and the hotels and boarding houses are all filled. The courts all adjourned to provide meeting places for the various state delegations.

The convention was called to order soon after noon by Colonel Bennett Young, commanding the Kentucky division. On the stage were all prominent officers of the association and Governor Beckham and other dignitaries. The invocation was made by Chaplain Jones, after which Governor Beckham made an address of welcome

Other addresses of welcome were elivered by Mayor Charles F. Grainer, General Bennett R. Young, and General Simon Bolivar Buckner. As General Stephen D. Lee was
